"all we want to do is hunt and fish and talk about it"

October 2013, Issue 262

October 9th Lunch Program: Don Turner will present stories from his days as an Arizona Game and Fish officer.

Rumor has it.....there may be a quail hunt at Rainbow Canyon scheduled for Oct 19th but I hear bird populations are off and we have not heard any details from the honcho of the event. Stay tuned for an email announcement.

Pictures from the pig roast: carving the guest of honor, the Annie Oakley final four; Clayton Phillipp, Steve Linder, Mark Forsstrom and eventual winner Mike Reese, and guys watching the shoot.

Next meeting Wednesday November 13th, 12 noon at Charlie's Lakeside located at 8603 W. Sahara (Sahara and Durango) Price $20

Randy Weaver's Presidents Message

Fall has arrived and our members have been heading to the hills wing chasing quail and dove in the southern part of the state to pounding dirt after the big game north of us.

Neil Dille said he needs to unload his muzzle loader. Any volunteers to help him would be appreciated.

I need everyone's help in updating their club membership roster. We are going to try and get everyone's picture, so please be extra helpful in completing this task. And please fill out the form that will be sent to you via email to update everyone's address, phone etc.

The club is currently starting to make plans for our Annual Woods & Water Banquet being held March 1st 2014. Sean Cassidy and Mike Taylor will be in charge and are looking for volunteers.

New members, this is a great way to get involved in the club, meet the members, and the only way to earn the coveted Las Vegas Woods & Water Banquet shirt including logo. So new members please step up and sign-up to help contribute to the club, we only have one fund raiser a year, so please help out.

Attendance at the board meetings needs to improve so we can get some things accomplished. So to all board members please attend October 28, 2013 board meeting.

It has been brought to my attention that some of you may not take the time to read the "Presidents Message" each month. (Given the fact that hours are spent preparing these informative messages, those that don't read won't know what they are missing out on.) So for those that do, if you are reading this monthly message then text the message "hunt and fish" (also your name) to 702-460-7829. This will make you eligible for a gift card drawing at the next luncheon. The first 10 to text will get 2 chances to win.

Sean Cassidy (left) was key help at the Fall Feast with the food and getting all side dishes and preparation and below the whole food crew gets ready to feed all the shooters when they get off the line.

Fall Feast highlights.....

The weather was perfect, the shooting was fun, the food was top notch and the camaraderie was the icing to a great event. Many thanks go out to Mike Reese for setting up the shoot with a fun new format. Randy Weaver for going to RC Farms to purchase the guest of honor (the pig), Cal Heinbach for all his effort and hard work cooking the pig and getting it to the shooting park and Sean Cassidy for pulling the rest of the food and supplies together. Don't forget Chuck Frommer at John Mull's Meat's for donating all the side dishes (some of the best baked beans around).

The shoot had lots of participants but only a few wives and families were on hand this year.....that's too bad. We need to improve next year. This is one of the dedicated family events promoted by the club.

Top: shooters get their instructions, scorer Michael Reese. Bottom: check in Mike and Scott Reese and Cal Hinebauch is all smiles after a job well done cooking the pig for all the rest of us to enjoy.

Yuma Arizona Dove Hunt

Honcho Russ Johnson

You should have been there, Opening Day, September 1, 2013 28 Club Members and Guests ventured to Yuma Arizona for a two day (three hunts) shoot fest. Most limited out the first two hunts on Sunday the 1st both AM and PM hunts and maybe ½ limited out on third hunt Monday, the 2nd morning hunt. Birds get smart fast!

My home made rating system for the hunt is as follows on scale of 1-10 Ten being best: Comradely 10, Lodging 9, Food 7, OVER ALL 9.5

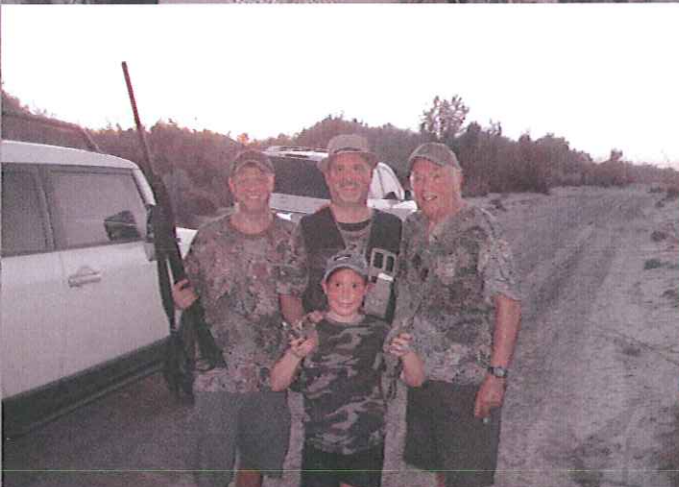

One unfortunate incident, Steve Kiss's son's friend accidentally stumbled in field with his gun barrel going in to mud, tried to kick the mud free with his boot when birds came into shooting ranging and he raised shotgun to fire and his barrel exploded, see pic, he had to be taken to emergency care in Yuma escorted by a AZ Game Warden. Fortunately we understand he only required stitches in his forearm and is doing OK. Could have been much worse!

Others, all had a great time and look forward in returning to the area next year, we passed through Parker on the way and stopped for lunch before proceeding to Yuma with fond memories of Dan Perry our honcho for many years there and staying at the KOFA INN. But, Yuma is now the place to go. Ask Neil & Clayton, two you don't want to be around when hunting ---they don't miss many!

All we want to do is HUNT, FISH, MEET and TALK about it, LVWWC, Las Vegas NV since 1991

One unfortunate incident is one too many. This is a very serious safety concern and a good opportunity for everyone to refresh themselves with basic safety rules and procedures. The individual was 25 but it can happen at any age. Any time a barrel goes into the ground the gun should be disassembled and inspected completely. It only takes a minute to break down a shot gun and look down the barrel to make sure it is clear. Alarm bells should be ringing in everyone's ears, take note and be extra safe this fall in all your hunts!

Young hunter bags a dove, the Johnson's enjoy the day afield with the whole family and then later at the restaurant time to relax and enjoy a drink and food.
