2016 CELEBRATING 25 YEARS

Sunnyside Spring Fishing & Coyote Hunt

March 18-19-20 weekend is set for a big outing. The main events take place on Saturday March 19th however several guys will go up Friday the 18th to pre-fish the lake and scout for the GHOST coyotes in the area.

Camping will take place at the camp ground, for us old timers we still refer to the area as Sunnyside however the official name is Kirch Wildlife Management Area. It is located roughly 175 miles north of Las Vegas. Take I-15 north approx 20 miles to highway 93 (at the Love's Truck stop) travel northwest 75-80 miles through Alamo and Ash Springs. (this is the last stop for fuel and supplies so stop and get anything you may have forgotten at home) Just past Ash Springs is the intersection with highway 318, after turning onto 318 vere to the right and keep going north approximately 75 miles to the signs for Kirch Wildlife Management Area camp will be 5-6 miles of dirt road to the west. The campground is just past the first lake (you will see the ONLY trees around for miles) I doubt drinking water will be available at the campground so prepare to bring plenty of water. Warm springs are not far from camp so bring some shorts for a soak in the evening.

The Ghost Coyote Hunt honchoed by Joe Luby 702 290-9590 will begin at 0530 Sat morning and end at 0930. Meet back at camp for wrap up and lies about the ones you didn't even see.

Fishing is to start at 1000 hours till 1500 hours at Haymeadow Res (the last of 4 lakes in the chain to the south) Meet at the boat ramp for final instructions and rules to be determined on the spot by honcho Brian Patterson 702 715-2020. This is an Angler of the Year event. Be prepared to keep at least 2 fish (trout only) as the Club Boy Scout Troup will be on hand to help prepare a fish dinner for Saturday night at camp. Those Anglers that DO NOT keep 2 fish will not be counted in the Angler standings.

Next meeting Wednesday April 13th, 12 noon at Charlie's Lakeside located at 8603 W. Sahara (Sahara and Durango) price 20$

25th Annual Banquet Highlights

A huge crowd of approximately 275 folks gathered last month to celebrate the 25th Anniversary of the Las Vegas Woods and Waters Club. Many original charter members were present as were several past presidents. Awards for Marksman of the Year went to Dave Famiglietti, Angler of the Year was Larry Cusimano, several members were recognized for being a honcho at the club events throughout the year but the biggest honor of the evening went to club founder Ken Johnson. Ken is the ONLY TWO TIME WINNER OF THE SPOTSRSMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD, the clubs highest honor.

Many people won prizes of all kinds, all the kids in the room went home with a special gift of a fishing rod donated by Sportsman's Warehouse and a pocket knife donated by Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation. Several kids also went home with a new gun from a special drawing. The Club sponsored Boy Scout Troup was also present to help out and they too got gifts for their efforts. The club has really stepped up to promote youth organizations/functions in the past couple years. This is great to see young people interested in the outdoors as a club we need to promote more hunting, fishing and talking about it.

Welcome to the club make sure president Steve Linder gets you a new hat at lunch, invite a friend to join the club. If you see a new face at lunch say hi, introduce yourself and welcome the guys to the club. Invite them to one of our next shoots or outings.

Renew your Nevada Hunting and Fishing License now March 1 was the start of the new calendar year for NDOW. Big game applications are due next month you will need a hunting license to apply and if you plan to fish the Sunnyside Spring Fishing outing advertised on the cover you will need a current fishing license. Get them online.

BIG GAME HUNT APPLICATION “SEASON”

We have big game hunting season, fishing season, small game hunting season and hunt application season. Now is the application season, this is research and anticipation time for future hunts next fall. All the western states have applications due starting in January clear into June. Its hard to keep up with all of them but its critical if you intend to hunt more than just your home state of Nevada. If you want to play the game you need to apply and build points, its as simple as that. Nevada has limited resources so you most likely will not be hunting every year in our home state, we need to apply in other states to get that opportunity. Here is a list of western states and the application deadlines: Some not listed have already passed.

Montana elk and deer March 15
New Mexico all species March 16
Colorado all species April 5
Idaho sheep/moose/mtn goat April 30
Montana sheep/moose/mtn goat May 1
Nevada all species April 18
Oregon all species May 15
Washington all species May 18
Wyoming deer and antelope May 31
Montana antelope June 1
California all species June 2
Idaho elk/deer/antelope June 5
Arizona sheep/deer June 14

Great goose hunting this year in South Dakota, a big group of 25 members is headed up in early March to get in on the action.

JOKES

A Grandpa's Story

Last week, I took my grandchildren to a restaurant. My eight-year-old grandson asked if he could say grace. As we bowed our heads he said, "God is good, God is great. Thank you for the food, and I would thank you even more if Grandpa gets us ice cream for dessert. And liberty and justice for all! Amen!"

Along with the laughter from the other customers nearby, I heard a woman remark, "That's what's wrong with this country. Kids today don't even know how to pray. Asking God for ice cream! Why I never!"

Hearing this, my grandson burst into tears and asked me, "Did I do it wrong? Is God mad at me?"

So after I assured him that he had done a terrific job and that God was certainly not mad at him, an elderly gentleman approached the table. He winked at my grandson and said, "I happen to know that God thought that was a great prayer." "Really?" my grandson asked. "Cross my heart," the man replied. Then, in a theatrical whisper, he added (indicating the woman whose remark had started this whole thing), "Too bad she never asks God for ice cream. A little ice cream is sometimes good for the soul."

Naturally, I bought my grandchildren ice cream at the end of the meal. My grandson stared at his ice cream for a moment, and then he did something I will remember the rest of my life. He picked up his sundae and, without a word, walked over and placed it in front of the woman.

With a big smile he told her: "Here, this is for you. Shove it up your ass, you grouchy old bitch!" Kind of brings tears to your eyes, doesn't it?

COWBOY CHILI

A cowboy walks into a seedy old café in Wyoming. He sits at the counter and notices an old cowboy with his arms folded staring blankly at a full bowl of meaty chili.

After a few minutes of just watching him staring at the chili, the young cowboy bravely asks the old cowpoke, "If you ain't gonna eat that, mind if I do?"

The older cowboy slowly turns his head toward the young wrangler and in his best cowboy manner says, "Nah, you go ahead."

"Eagerly, the young cowboy reaches over and slides the bowl over to his place and starts spooning it in with delight. He gets nearly down to the bottom and notices a dead mouse in the chili.

The sight was very shocking and he immediately barfs up the chili back into the bowl.

The old cowboy quietly says, "Yep, that's as far as I got, too."

COMMANDER

A young Airman is working late at the Pentagon one evening. As he clocks out of his office at about 8 p.m. he sees a Second Lieutenant standing by the classified document shredder in the hallway with a piece of paper in his hand.

"Do you know how to work this thing?" the Lieutenant asks. "Our secretary has gone home and I don't know how to run it."

"Yes, sir," says the young Airman, eager to show the Officer his expertise, turns on the machine, takes the paper from the Lieutenant, and feeds it into the hopper.

"Thanks," says the Officer, "I just need one copy."
