Each shooter will shoot 5 steel turkeys at 50 yards. Once all turkeys are knocked down (unlimited shots), shooter will shoot 10 rounds into their paper turkey target. Shooters may reshoot for $5.00 but last score will be the one counted. .22 LR rifles, standing position, no slings, no backpacks, no leaning on tables, no sight restrictions. Ties will be decided by a shoot off at Rams at 100 yards.

Safety rules will be strictly enforced (case and uncase rifles on firing line during cease fire period only, muzzles up unless on the firing line, no handling guns behind the firing line and during cease fire/safe periods). Lewis class prizes. Safety is an attitude--attitude is everything.

NO EVENT IN OCTOBER- HAPPY HUNTING!

CAB BOARD CHANGES; HOW WILL IT AFFECT SPORTSMEN? At the Sept 4th BCC meeting councilwoman Chris Giunchigliani used her influence to appoint two new members on the 7 member Clark County Advisory Board to Manage Wildlife. The two new members Molly DiBlasi and Tavaris Sam were selected out of 6 applicants. LVWW members Mike Reese and Chip Rougeaux were overlooked as was sportsman Chris Grubs.

Ms DiBlasi attended our monthly lunch in September and seems open minded to our efforts to keep the hunting and fishing traditions alive. Mr Sam, well he resigned after only 6 days of service SOOO there is still an open seat on the Board. Update: Mike Reese was re-appointed for a fourth 3 year term at the Oct 2nd BCC meeting, congratulations to Mike. The wildlife and sportsmen of Nevada thank you for your service on the CAB. Next month is election time and we should all be doing our part at the polls. The County Commission will have some changes in the next few months which will also impact who gets appointed to the CAB.

It is more important now than ever before that we all show up to be heard at the CAB meetings.....the next one being October 30 at County Government Center 5:30-9pm.

Next meeting Wednesday November 14th, noon at Charlie's Lakeside located at 8603 W. Sahara (Sahara/Durango) price $20

Presidents Message

Hunting season is in full swing so I don't expect anyone to read any of these words. I don't think anyone does anyway! I hope everyone is enjoying time in the field with their friends and families. I know I have spent hundreds of hours the last few weeks tromping around Nevada's backcountry to notch my first archery big game tag on a beautiful central Nevada bull elk and chasing deer all over the Spring Mountain range right here in our backyard. The more time I spend amongst our wildlife, the more and more I fall in love with what we love to do and what we stand for. It reminds me of why we spend so much money, effort, and time to fight for this amazing pastime.

We had a great fall feast, thanks as always to Mike Reese for putting on the shoot, and to Steve Reiter for taking care of all the food and drinks. It was a great turn out as always and everyone seemed to have a great time. We've cancelled our shooting event for October because we were without honcho and most of the guys are out hunting anyway, so the next event will be our annual Turkey Shoot put on by Don Turner -- details to follow in this Game Bag -- I hope to see you all there before we get lost in the chaos of the holidays.

Again, be sure to send in your hunting pics and stories so we can get them in the game bag. Also, PLEASE start getting out to your local businesses and friends and start soliciting for banquet donations. I know it stinks to have to go around with your hand out, but it's worth it when you see all the great things we sponsor and do for our club, for conservation, and for youth in the outdoors. We'll start selling tables and tickets by mid November, so keep your eyes peeled for more info and SAVE THE DATE NOW: FEBRUARY 16, 2019

That's about all I have, and as always, if you have any suggestions, bitches, gripes, complaints, or ideas, don't hesitate to contact me at DFamiglietti@newfrontierarmory.com

Pig Roast Sporting Clays Results

Photos from the FALL FEAST last month. The cooks in the green shirts, Izzy and Clint Combs who donated and cooked the guest of honor...the pig. Honcho Mike Reese giving out the results and other action shots and teams on the course. For all the new members to LVWW the Club has a Fall Feast in September and a Spring Feast in April where we provide the food for all members, their family and friends to enjoy. Each Feast is also combined with a shooting event for that month which has a small fee associated with it to shoot but you are welcome to come out just for the food and comradery. We try to hold a shooting or fishing event (sometimes 2) each month and scores are kept throughout the year for Marksman and Angler of the Year honors that are given out in January after the years events have been completed.

FALL FEAST RECAP.....

Ken Johnson next to president Dave Famiglietti's sponsored station on the course.

Fall Feast had a great turn out for the shoot and the lunch. Some 48 shooters showed up, 44 of which were members. Speaking of members we had nine (9) new members join at the shoot. That makes 15 in the past month an increase of almost 10%! See the names listed on page 6 and welcome them to the club.

Izzy and Clint Combs from Silver State Clay Breakers donated and cooked the pig and brought it out and Road Kill Grill provided the side dishes. Everything was calculated just right as everyone got fed and there were no left overs. Thanks to the Combs and Steve Reiter for the coordination of the food.

Mike Reese was in charge of the shooting portion and with 48 shooters that's a handful to keep organized. We all got out to the course early and everyone seemed to be hitting more targets this year as the overall scores seemed higher. I know I shot better than most times so the course must have been set a tad easier. When it all got sorted out at the end Mike Reese was first with 92/100 targets! That was good for 10 Marksman of the Year points, Clayton Philips was very close with 91 and 9 Marksman points, Tony ONiel was next 8 pts, Cheryl McCracken 7, Scott Reese 6, Frank Mirabelli 5, Ryan Dombrowski-Larry Cusimano-Bruce Young all tied for 3 pts, everyone else got 1 point for shooting. As for the Lewis Class money pay out this was the first time there were no TIES to split the pot. Those getting money were Mike Reese $80, Clayton Philips $50, Tony ONeil $20, Fred Huntowski $80, Steve Reiter $50, Mike Taylor $20, Steve Kiss $80, Ken Johnson $50 and Steve Carpenter $20

A great day with perfect weather and I'm pretty sure everyone had fun and definitely enjoyed the Feast. We have two shooting events left in the year for Marksman of the Year...come out to the next event and have some fun.

Las Vegas Woods and Waters Service Directory

The Las Vegas Woods and Waters Club includes a really diverse group of guys. Many we only know as the guy sitting next to us at lunch, as the guy who can't fish, never gets a tag, or is always talking during a guest speaker's presentation. We are looking at making up a Classified – Service Directory made up of members that wish to share their skills with the rest of the club.

We've got plumbers, contractors, attorneys, doctors, realtors, engineers, guys actually have a value to society, and guys that sell all kinds of stuff.

If you want to have your name placed in our new work directory to share with the members and maybe make a sale or two, send your name, skill, business name, telephone number and e-mail to deerguy257@gmail.com. If you want to help sponsor the club by advertising in the GameBag or Banquet program, contact Brian Patterson at admin@lvwoodsandwaters.org or bpvegas1@hotmail.com

Bull Elk Hunt the hard way.....Dave Famiglietti

We had a successful Nevada bull elk archery hunt in the Table Mountain Wilderness after 50+ miles packing in and around the backcountry. There's no way I could have gotten this done without the "Bull Whisperer" Ryan Perchetti and club member "Eagle Eyes" Dustin Bayne — there's no one I would have rather shared this hunt with. I learned so much about the elk, calling, bow hunting, the gear we took, (and the gear we should of took — or left at home), and so much more. We pushed our bodies to the limits up there but all the hard work paid off when Ryan was able to call this stud in for me to 35 yards from the ridge above the canyon we were hiking through. This was a very special tag for me and I'm so glad we were able to do it the hard way in a wilderness area! Now if only I was having the same luck on my deer hunt.....to be continued!

LVWW is the Charter for Troop 130 we have renewed the Charter again for 2018. This is a great opportunity to pass on to youth the things we all enjoy get your kids, grandkids or neighbor kids involved.

Silver State Wranglers 4-H Club

See where our donations go. Our give back committee has sponsored a donation to the Silver State Wranglers for a couple years now. This is our money at work, the funds have helped purchase equipment and supplies so these youngsters can get out and shoot. 22 rifles or bow and arrow, the equipment, the range, the targets, the ammunition it all adds up. They recently requested $360 ($20 per 18 kids) to shoot at the 4-H State Shooting Match held on Sept 29th. I do not have the results to report how well they did. The Wranglers have also given back to the LVWW Club. Izzy and Clint Combs supplied the pig and cooked it for our Fall Feast last month. Our giving is returned in kind, but the real reward is not a cooked pig but rather knowing these young kids are being exposed to outdoor activities that hopefully they will cherish and teach to their kids in the future. Thank you LVWW for keeping the spark alive.

The Dallas Solution!

I have a friend who is president of his homeowners Association in the Dallas, Texas suburbs. They were having a terrible problem with litter near some of his Association's' homes. The reason, according to my friend, is that six very large, luxurious new houses are being built right next to their community.

The trash was coming from the Mexican laborers working at the construction sites and included bags from McDonald's, Burger King and 7-11, plus coffee cups, napkins, cigarette butts, coke cans, empty bottles, etc. He went to see the site supervisor and even the general contractor, politely urging them to get their workers not to litter the neighborhood, to no avail. He called the city, county, and Police and got no help there either.

So here's what his community did. They organized about twenty folks, named themselves the "Inner Neighborhood Services" group, and arranged to go out at lunch time and "police" the trash themselves. It is what they did while picking up the trash that is so hilarious.

They bought navy blue baseball caps and had the initials "INS" embroidered in gold on the caps. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to understand what they hoped people might mistakenly think the letters really stand for.

After the Inner Neighborhood Services group's first lunch time pickup detail, with all of them wearing their caps and some carrying cameras, 46 out of the total of 68 construction Workers did not show up for work the next morning –; and haven't come back yet. It has been ten days now.

The General Contractor, I'm told, is madder than hell, but can't say anything publicly because he could be busted for hiring illegal aliens. My friend and his bunch can't be accused of impersonating federal personnel, because they have the official name of the group recorded in their homeowner association minutes along with a notation about the vote to approve formation of the new subcommittee -- and besides, they informed the INS in advance of their plans, and according to my friend, the INS said basically, "Have at it!"

SO, FOLKS, I THINK YOU COULD SAY THAT TEXAS INGENUITY TRIUMPHS AGAIN!

SCOTTISH LOVE STORY

An elderly Scotsman lay dying in his bed. While suffering the agonies of impending death, he suddenly smelled the aroma of his favourite pan fried drop scones wafting up the stairs.

He gathered his remaining strength and lifted himself from the bed. Leaning on the wall, he slowly made his way out of the bedroom with even greater effort. Gripping the railing with both hands, he crawled downstairs. With laboured breath, he leaned against the door-frame, gazing into the kitchen.

Were it not for death's agony, he would have thought himself already in heaven, for there, spread out upon the kitchen table were literally hundreds of his favourite scones.

Was it heaven? Or was it one final act of love from his devoted Scottish wife of sixty years, seeing to it that he left this world a happy man?

Mustering one great final effort, he threw himself towards the table, landing on his knees in rumpled posture. His aged and withered hand trembled towards a scone at the edge of the table, when it was suddenly smacked by his wife with a wooden spoon.

She said..... "F... off" "they're for the funeral."

What a beautiful love story!!

Ahh, but to be 8 once again! (or so she said)

A man was sitting on the edge of the bed, watching his wife, who was looking at herself in the mirror. Since her birthday was not far off, he asked what she'd like to have for her birthday.

'I'd like to be eight again', she replied, still looking in the mirror.

On the morning of her Birthday, he arose early, made her a nice big bowl of Coco Pops, and then took her to Adventure World theme park. What a day! He put her on every ride in the park; the Death Slide, the Wall of Fear, the Screaming Roller Coaster, everything there was.

Five hours later they staggered out of the theme park. Her head was reeling and her stomach felt upside down. He then took her to a McDonald's where he ordered her a Happy Meal with extra fries and a chocolate shake.

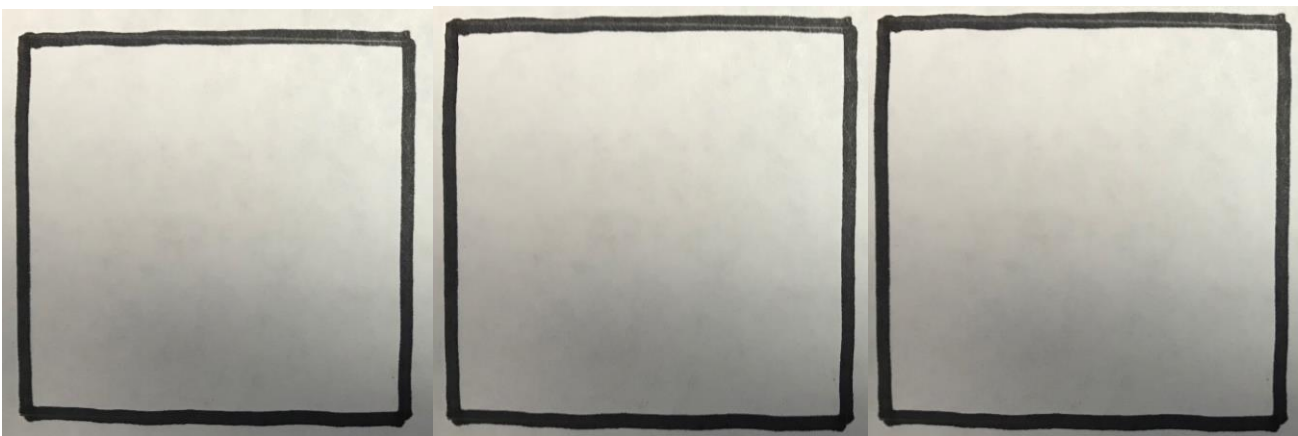

Then it was off to a movie, popcorn, a soda pop, and her favorite candy, M&M's. What a fabulous adventure!

Finally she wobbled home with her husband and collapsed into bed exhausted.

He leaned over his wife with a big smile and lovingly asked, 'Well Dear, what was it like being eight again'?

Her eyes slowly opened and she said it was great. Then all of a sudden, her expression completely changed as her eyes opened wide and her cheeks went flush, she said; "You freaking retard, I meant my dress size"!!!!

The moral of the story: Even when a guy is listening, chances are he is never gonna get it right!
