FALL FEAST Pig Roast & Sporting Clays Sept 15 @ CCSC

4H Silver State Wranglers one of the youth groups LVWW has donated to in the past has donated a pig and will be cooking it for us at the Fall Feast this year. Clint Combs will be cooking the pig for us and Road Kill Grill will be providing all the side dishes. The fall feast is one of the great membership perks, you and your family get a FREE meal. Hope to see you all at the event next Saturday Sept 15th. Come out just to eat if you don't want to shoot the sporting clays course. Steve Reiter has done the leg work putting together the details on the Feast.

Shooting honcho Mike Reese will start the sign ups at 8:30am with a safety briefing before loading the carts to hit the course at 9:00am. Try to pair up with a group of four (4) per cart to make it easier on Mike, but don't worry if you come out solo Mike can pair you up with a team. All shooting will be individual based scoring. Cost is $45 per person and be prepared to shoot 100 targets, bring an extra box of shells. 7.5, 8 or 9 shot size only. Shooting should be over by 11:30 and food will be served soon after with the scores posted and winners announced during lunch. Lewis Class money will be paid out. Lewis Class is a great way to even the field so that anyone no matter your skill level is able to win prize money. Last year we had 32 shooters and 9 of them won money using the Lewis Class format. Come out to practice for dove season that recently opened.

Next meeting Wednesday October 10th, noon at Charlie's Lakeside located at 8603 W. Sahara (Sahara/Durango) price $20

Presidents Message

Finally! Fall is here! I'm excited to have cooler mornings and evenings upon us finally. I think more than the lack of scorching heat, I'm excited because the weather changing means great things to come for hunters with the start of our seasons in the western outdoors.

We finished up our Angler of the Year events a few weeks ago with a fun filled trip out onto Lake Mead to chase the striper boils. It wasn't as crazy of a catch as some previous years, but it was still a great time on the water with the guys with a club sponsored breakfast afterwards which is always fun.

As we enter hunting season, please email in your hunting photos to share with the group. We all love to see what's going on with fellow club members, so keep us updated. Also, if you're in need of some help on a hunt, let us know that as well. Our club is a wealth of knowledge and I'm sure someone knows the area you're hunting well and can help plan or maybe even tag along on your hunt.

I'll be missing the September lunch while I tromp through the Central Nevada wilderness chasing bull elk with sharp sticks but will be at the next board meeting and will catch up with everyone at the October lunch (hopefully with some good news from my bull and buck hunts!). Once these two hunts are over I'll be kicking off the banquet planning committees so we can get going on our 2019 banquet preparation. Please be prepared to step up and help so we can continue the streak of making each banquet bigger and better than the last!

For all of you heading out into the field this month be sure to prepare, have a good emergency plan, be safe, and most of all -- SHOOT STRAIGHT! I can't wait to see photos of all the wonderful trophies harvested by our LVWW members this season.

That's about all I have, and as always, if you have any suggestions, bitches, gripes, complaints, or ideas, don't hesitate to contact me at DFamiglietti@newfrontierarmory.com

Striper Fishing Results

Fourteen anglers showed up for the last Angler of the Year event at Lake Mead. Honcho Mark Transue did all the heavy lifting getting the event planned and organized. The club hires professional Lake Mead fishing guides to help insure success. Mark secured 3 boats and captains/guides. Each member that wants to be on one of the "guided" boats pays $100 for his seat. You can also fish from your own vessel if so desired. I was unable to attend as I was enjoying a week in the northwest on a family vacation (my only SWEAT free days all summer). I got the details second hand, there were some fish caught but didn't sound like great numbers. A couple new members were recruited Dexter Loncar and Dustin Bayne, welcome to the club.

When the boats returned to the dock and the final tally was complete there was a tie for most fish caught. Dave Famiglietti and Dustin Bayne split top honors, followed by a tie for third place Rod Maly, Bruce Young, Jeff Boatright and Dexter Loncar, seventh place went to Mike Stokes eighth place Randy Peters....others were Julius Fortuna, Frank Mirabelli, John Mitteness and Brian Cimperman. Non-member Joe Pierro (Fortuna son-in-law) also landed a few fish.

We had five Angler of the Year events scheduled in 2018 but the Ice Fishing at Cave Lake was cancelled in January due to lack of ice and our Sunnyside fishing event had to be rescheduled due to ice in early March when it was rescheduled there was poor attendance. A great time was had at Otter Creek Res (over 20 fishermen) and again at Panguitch Lake (over 40 fishermen), both with pretty good turn outs. After all the miles and numerous casts Dave Famiglietti beat the group by a pretty good margin to claim Angler of the Year 2018 honors. Formal recognition to happen in December. Dave also has a pretty good lead in the Marksman of the Year Standings and has lapped the field so far in the All Around Standings. There are 3-4 shooting events left in the year, unless Dave gets lost in the wilderness on one of his 4 hunts this fall he should make a clean sweep.

CAB BOARD CHANGES; POTENTIALLY NEGATIVELY AFFECT US.

At the Sept 4th BCC meeting councilwoman Chris Giunchigliani used her influence to appoint two new members on the 7 member Clark County Advisory Board to Manage Wildlife. The two new members Molly DiBlasi and Tavaris Sam were selected out of 6 applicants. LVWW members Mike Reese and Chip Rougeaux were overlooked as was sportsman Chris Grubs. While the jury is still out on Ms DiBlasi and Mr Sam there should be alarm bells and major concern ringing in your ears as sportsmen in Nevada. Chris G. has supported and appointed two other members of the CAB that are non-sportsmen and do not always have Nevada's wildlife best interests at heart. The deck is stacked 4 to 3 now. It is more important now than ever before that we all show up to be heard at the CAB meetings.....the next one being Sept 18 at County Government Center 5:30-9pm.

Yuma AZ, Opening Day Dove Hunt.....reported by Ken Johnson

The Yuma AZ dove hunt group was light this year, around dozen hunters ,Labor Day wkend crowds from AZ & CA made rooms hard to find at last minute. About half of us had a great hunt the others so,so. Russ and I brought home limits in two days hunting 70 birds. Best we had seen in Yuma on Sat pm & Sun AM . Opening morn very slow, Sun pm ok. Rich Beasley & brother found us a honey hole on the best days about 30 minutes from where we were staying, word got out quick. Russ limited out in about 30 minutes Me & names? Me , Russ, Rich, Brother, Friends of Russ – Scott & Ed Malooey (member living in Flagstaff),big boy Clayton Phillipp, Bob LaPome & son , Isaac Amiaasu & two buddies, Warren Tiefeld From San Diego & Son & two buddies. Maybe others we did not see? Rate the hunt a 8 plus out of 10. Had a lot of wind & dust Sat pm & Sun am. Did not stop the heat 106 plus! Food & people pics only time together- no camera time while hunting- everybody scattered-sorry about that. Still great time & great small group, wish more members- maybe next year? Talked to Captain Al Schoelen hunting in Tucson W/ Family by phone. They had a disappointing hunt said usually good? Cheers Ken Johnson Common theme more food & fun photos than field success photos.....just a shadow of those hunters in the field ☺

A BIG thank you and shout out:

“After talking to Henry at Hidden Lake Outfitters during a recap of the clubs recent pack trip into the Ruby Mountain Wilderness, I was informed that LVWW Vice President Steve Reiter volunteered his time, fuel, and horses/tack/feed to Hidden Lake Outfitters for that trip to help keep the cost of the trip down for our members that attended. I wanted to take a second to personally and publicly thank him on behalf of everyone that went on that trip for that very selfless gesture. Its guys like Steve who make this club as great as it is. We have an amazing network of guys that bend over backwards for each other and help each other out and I think that’s LVWW’s greatest asset of them all. Thanks for being a standup guy Steve – we all appreciate it greatly!”

Las Vegas Woods and Waters Service Directory

The Las Vegas Woods and Waters Club includes a really diverse group of guys. Many we only know as the guy sitting next to us at lunch, as the guy who can’t fish, never gets a tag, or is always talking during a guest speaker’s presentation. We are looking at making up a Classified – Service Directory made up of members that wish to share their skills with the rest of the club.

We’ve got plumbers, contractors, attorneys, doctors, realtors, engineers, guys actually have a value to society, and guys that sell all kinds of stuff.

If you want to have your name placed in our new work directory to share with the members and maybe make a sale or two, send your name, skill, business name, telephone number and e-mail to deerguy257@gmail.com. If you want to help sponsor the club by advertising in the GameBag or Banquet program, contact Brian Patterson at admin@lvwoodsandwaters.org or bpvegas1@hotmail.com

A New GameBag Feature

Ralph Willits suggested to include a new feature to the GameBag called “Who the heck is...”

In an effort to get to know alittle more about the members of the group Ralph came up with a short bio form to fill out and give additional information that others may find interesting. A copy of the form is included at the end of the GameBag after the jokes page. If you’re interested fill it out and get it back to Ralph or Brian Patterson the GameBag editor.

BUY – SELL - TRADE

Buyers & Sellers agree to obey all firearms laws and local regulations in all transactions and hold LVWW harmless. Hunting, Fishing, Camping gear. For Sale: Ralph Willits has "lots" of miscellaneous VHS hunting videos for sale (good deal to be had) contact Ralph at 702 423-7444.

New Members: Dustin Bayne, Dexter Loncar welcome to the club, make sure to get your free hat at lunch for joining.

Scouting Troop 130 and the LVWW Club

Want to be a scout? LVWW Boy Scout and Venturing Crew – Boys and Girls ages 11-21 welcome. Meet Thursdays from 6:30-8pm call Joe Luby at 702 290-9590 or scout master Bill Rochel'eau at 209 480-7835. Troop 130 is the club's very own charter, scouting embodies all the things the club is about; hunting, fishing, outdoor skills, friendships and getting youth involved in these pursuits. LVWW is the Charter for Troop 130 we have renewed the Charter again for 2018. This is a great opportunity to pass on to youth the things we all enjoy get your kids, grandkids or neighbor kids involved.

LVWW lunch meetings

Some ideas have been kicked around to add to the lunch meeting held each second Wednesday of the month. The club uses a budget of $250 for the door prizes each month. It is the responsibility of the club Game Warden to purchase the gifts each month (no small task). We have used different approaches over the years. Sometimes getting 20 items in the $5-15 range and other times getting 4-5 items in the $40-50 range. As our membership has grown so has the attendance at the lunch meetings we have been averaging over 40 for quite some time. There are pluses and minuses to each approach. More gifts, equals more "winners" but perhaps you win something you already have, won't use or don't need. The idea was brought up for members to "re-gift" some items. If you won something you have no use for, why not bring it back the next month as there might be someone in the club that would like that item? Or perhaps you have a collection of slightly used items you want to donate.....hunting books or manuals, videos or CD's for example. Maybe you have some ammunition from a gun you no longer own that is just sitting around taking up space....bring it to lunch and add it to the door prize table. These are some ideas to kill two birds with one stone, you get to clean out your closet some and there will be more door prizes to win and someone else may really enjoy winning what you no longer need.

Another item for discussion is the lunch speaker program, we try to bring in interesting lunch speakers each month. This too is a big task. If you have any topics of discussion or know someone able to speak to the group for 15-20 minutes please bring it to the attention of president Dave Famiglietti or anyone on the board. This is a big part of why we gather each month to educate ourselves and learn about things that affect us in our outdoor pursuits. But it is also a big part of just telling some good hunting or fishing stories. Who doesn't enjoy that?

To that end with an aging membership (hearing loss) and bigger turn outs at each meeting I'm noticing it is getting harder and harder to actually hear what our speakers are saying. There are often times two or three different conversations going on during the announcements and presentation, frankly this is RUDE. Be considerate do your visiting and catching up with friends before or after the announcements and presentations.

Jokes

A blonde hurried into the emergency room late one night with the tip of her index finger shot off. 'How did this happen?' the emergencyroom doctor asked her. 'Well, I was trying to commit suicide,' the blonde replied. 'What?' sputtered the doctor. 'You tried to commit suicide by shooting off your finger?' 'No, silly' the blonde said. 'First I put the gun to my chest, and then I thought, 'I just paid $6, 000 for these implants... I'm not shooting myself in the chest.' 'So then?' asked the doctor. 'Then I put the gun in my mouth, and I thought, 'I just paid $3,000 to get my teeth straightened. I'm not shooting myself in the mouth.' 'So then?' 'Then I put the gun to my ear, and I thought: 'This is going to make a loud noise. So I put my finger in my other ear before I pulled the trigger.'

A blonde was driving home after a game and got caught in a really bad hailstorm. Her car was covered with dents, so the next day she took it to a repair shop. The shop owner saw that she was a blonde, so he decided to have some fun... He told her to go home and blow into the tail pipe really hard, and all the dents would pop out. So, the blonde went home, got down on her hands and knees and started blowing into her tailpipe. Nothing happened. So she blew a little harder and still, nothing happened. Her blonde roommate saw her and asked, 'What are you doing?' The first blonde told her how the repairman had instructed her to blow into the tail pipe in order to get all the dents to pop out. The roommate rolled her eyes and said, 'Uh, like hello! You need to roll up the windows first.'

A blonde was shopping at Target and came across a shiny silver thermos. She was quite fascinated by it, so she picked it up and took it to the clerk to ask what it was. The clerk said, 'Why, that's a thermos..... It keeps hot things hot, and cold things cold.' 'Wow, said the blonde, 'that's amazing.....I'm going to buy it!' So she bought the thermos and took it to work the next day. Her boss saw it on her desk. 'What's that,' he asked? 'Why, that's a thermos..... It keeps hot things hot and cold things cold,' she replied. Her boss inquired, 'What do you have in it?' The blond replied... 'Two popsicles and some coffee.'

AND LAST BUT NOT LEAST...

A blonde goes into work one morning crying her eyes out. Her boss asked sympathetically, 'What's the matter?' The blonde replies, 'Early this morning I got a phone call saying that my mother had passed away.' The boss, feeling sorry for her, says, 'Why don't you go home for the day? Take the day off to relax & rest.' 'Thanks, but I'd be better off here. I need to keep my mind off it and I have the best chance of doing that here.' The boss agrees and allows the blonde to work as usual. A couple of hours pass and the boss decides to check on her. He looks out from his office and sees the blonde crying hysterically. 'What's so bad now? Are you gonna be okay?' he asks. 'No!' exclaims the blonde. 'I just received a horrible call from my sister. Her mother died, too!'

So to get this started, President Dave COMMANDED me to do the first story on me.

Who the heck is.....Ralph Willits?”

I was born in Southern California (the last time you'll hear me use the “C” word, especially about me), then frequent family moves around the state until finally finding our Home in Reno when I was 12. Boy Scouts was a big part of my life that lead me around Northern Nevada and the Sierras backpacking, fishing, and hunting. I eventually received the rank of Eagle Scout.

I initially enrolled at the University of Nevada majoring in Wildlife Management but jumped ship for a degree in Criminal Justice after being hired by The Reno Police Department where I called it quits 29 years later. My assignments included K-9 and Horse Mounted Unit. Whenever I found “slapping the cuffs” got boring, I worked part time as a medic, volunteer fire fighter/instructor at the University of Nevada Fire Academy, cowboy, (Living up to the motto: Will Rope for food), and PRCA photographer. Before coming to Las Vegas in 2004, I raised exotic birds, yak, fallow deer, and reindeer. I didn't just collect antlers,

I made them!

I joined Las Vegas Woods & Waters in 2012 when I heard of the club's archery shoot at Sportsman Warehouse. My favorite fishing moment was watching my daughter land her first salmon in Alaska. Hard to pick my favorite hunt, but I've narrowed it down to my first punched archery tag was a SCI/Pope & Young Quebec Labrador Caribou; or hunting Oryx at the White Sand Missile Range in New Mexico getting to actually be at Trinity Site – ground zero, where the first atomic bomb was detonated. I also have an antelope in the Nevada and SCI record books.
